HATS OFF TO ... YOUTH OF THE WEEK

Nolan Trodd

Valhalla Community Charter School

Nolan is a Grade Two student who is a fantastic example of good citizenship.

He is always listening when any teacher is presenting information, and when his classmates are speaking as well.

Nolan is the first to jump up and help a friend whose crayons spill on the floor; he is ready and willing to help anyone who is in need. He does his best in his schoolwork, achieving 100% on his first spelling test this year, which is not an easy task!

His writing has shown a huge improvement; he lately wrote a story about his video games, which was actually too technical for his teacher to understand! Nolan's reading has also improved, and he thoughtfully shows his friends where the class is reading if they ever lose track when sitting next to him. He does these things without being asked, and with a positive attitude.

If anyone is not sure what is happening next with the class (or when library class is!), we just ask Nolan. Such a great character model for all!
